Turn the dialogue to the question of what individuals can do towards improving race relations. Ask questions like-What things have you seen that give you hope for improved race relations ! What are some steps we could take to improve race relations in our neighborhood In our workplace ! In our organizations In our schools In our communityExplore the roles that the communitys institutions and government play in helping race relations. How could they do a better jobSummarize the session, evaluate it, and bring the meeting to an end. Transition to Phase IV: I hope that you all have begun to have a vision of what this community could look like if the positive changes weve discussed were to actually take place. When we come back together next session, we will be talking about what we can do as individuals and with others to really make a difference. For the next session, think about these questions: What kinds of concrete steps can you take in your everyday life-by yourself and with others to improve race relations in the community What do you think is most needed in this community Phase IV. What Will We Do, As Individuals and With Others, To Make a Difference The purpose of this session is to begin a productive conversation on specific actions that individuals will take, by themselves or with others, to make a difference in their communities. This session presents a range of concrete actions for change. While the racial issues we are facing in our communities sometimes...
