Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In PLANES OF THE HEAVENWORLD, Author Jeanne Rejaunier examines life between two worlds, showing how our physical existence on Earth and the invisible realms beyond our planet are intricately interconnected, and how the possibility of visiting the Planes in our sleep at night prepares us for the Afterlife and enriches our present lives in the here and now. Contact with the two worlds in soul travel was an accepted reality for the ancients. Indians, Tibetans, Persians, Egyptians, Hebrews, Greek esotericists and early Christians all recognized that when human consciousness is focused on the inner planes in sleep, the liberated soul is free to commune with its own nature, partaking of the invisible world. As Rejaunier points out, death is not extinction - we live on in the heavenly realms: For in my Father s house are many mansions. The wonderful message of this book is that right now, as we are living here on earth, we enrich ourselves by contacting that other world. As the ancients knew, every Plane of the etheric Heavenworld has many temples in which are halls of learning and testing areas where, guided by heavenly teachers, we are privileged to examine and evaluate our lives. There, as seekers of truth, we see ourselves clearly through mirrors in which we are shown our faults and mistakes, how to make changes and improve our lives to reach the next level in our ongoing development. Tests on the spiritual Plane precede parallel ones in the physical world, and are a means of unfolding consciousness, enabling us to grow in wisdom and understanding. PLANES OF THE HEAVENWORLD is based on the author s decades long study with California...
